, citizens may use the initiative and referendum process, which permits citizens to petition to place measures on the ballot and usually involves a signature collection process of some kind. Even in states without initiative and referendum processes, however, ballot measures exist. In all states, citizens may be asked to approve legislatively referred constitutional amendments, state statutes, bond issues or tax proposals. If a ballot measure committee is controlled by a candidate for elected office, the committee's funds cannot be used for that candidate's election. The former adopts regulations pertaining to campaign finance disclosure and imposes penalties against individuals and committees that violate the law. They can be downloaded by clicking on the icons below. There are various filing deadlines depending on the type of committee, and whether or not that committee is involved in an active election. There are also special quarterly filing deadlines for measure committees with qualified initiatives or during the petition qualification process. The following schedules are provided via the FPPC. The City has implemented an electronic filing system called eCampaign to ensure that contributions and expenditures in city elections are disclosed and made available to the public. All committees who are required to file campaign disclosure statements must file their forms electronically through this system including independent expenditure committees and major donor committees. An account will automatically be created for committees upon receipt of an initial Form 410 Statement of Organization. If your committee structure does not require this form, including but not limited to independent expenditure committees and major donor committees, please contact our office as soon as possible to initiate an account. Access to the public portal and committee filer portals may be found below. Additional filing requirements may apply. You may have to register before you can post. BEACON is designed to allow filers to report their campaign finance transactions to the State of Arizona in a simple and easy-to-use interface. The Secretary of State's Office has streamlined the user experience to allow for easier entry of campaign finance information and reporting, including reducing the number of menu items, allowing for quick switching between filer accounts, and accessing the brand new rapid name search feature. A User Guide for the new system may be found here. However, your password may need to be updated to meet the new security requirements. A PAC that uses an abbreviation or acronym as part of its committee name shall provide in the description of the PAC the full word or words that are abbreviated or form the acronym. The PAC name may not substantially duplicate the name of an already registered committee A PAC must either have an Iowa resident as the treasurer

or maintain all of the PACs funds in bank accounts in a financial institution located in Iowa. An amendment to the committee's statement of organization must be done electronically using the Ethics Board's web reporting system. However, a permanent organization that temporarily engages in activities that qualifies it as a PAC that only makes expenditures from its existing general operating funds is not required to open a separate account. This includes contributions from other PACs. The PAC treasurer must deposit all contributions within 7 days of receipt. PAC expenditures must be remitted to the designated recipient within 15 days of the date of the issuance of the payment. However, a committee is not required to keep records for more than 3 years from the certified date of the dissolution of the committee. Reports must be electronically filed by 430 p.m. on the due date. Reporting dates vary depending on the type of PAC and whether or not it is an election year. See the Ethics Board's brochure on reporting dates for the specific reporting deadlines by type of PAC. A committee is required to file reports even if there is no financial activity during a reporting period until the committee is dissolved.

The Ethics Board strives to email every committee a reminder notice prior to every disclosure report filing deadline. However, these notices are merely a courtesy and the failure to receive a reminder notice is no excuse for an untimely report. Please contact the Boards staff if you need assistance determining your disclosure report filing deadlines. A PAC may accept monetary and inkind contributions from individuals, other PACs, and any entity that is not a prohibited contributor under section 68A.503 of the Code of Iowa. Prohibited contributors are corporations, banks, credit unions, and insurance companies. See Iowa Code section 68A.504 for the exceptions for candidates running for federal office or a special election. Published material means any newspaper, magazine, shopper, outdoor advertising facility, poster, direct mailing, brochure, internet web site including social media pages, campaign sign, or any other form of printed general public political advertising. Published material also includes television, video, or motion picture advertising. An attribution statement is also not required on yard signs that are 32 square feet or less in size. However, an attribution statement is required on campaign signs affixed to buildings or vehicles regardless of size, except for bumper stickers. We encourage candidates to contact the Board's staff at 515 2814028 with any questions.
